

Human Rights & Sustainability Policy

The ongoing success of Johnson Controls is supported by our strong relationships with customers, employees, suppliers, shareholders and communities. To nurture and sustain such relationships, we are committed to operating in accordance with the Ten Principles of the UN Global Compact, of which we are a member.

The Human Rights and Sustainability Policy and our Ethics Policy define how we abide by these principles and related global standards. Ethics policy:

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

HUMAN RIGHTS

As an early signatory of the United Nations Global Compact, Johnson Controls supports the Compact's Ten Principles which are based on The Universal Declaration of Human Rights, The International Labor Organization's Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work, The Rio Declaration on Environment and Development and The United Nations Convention Against Corruption. In addition, Johnson Controls supports the United Nations Framework on Business and Human Rights and the Guiding Principles for the Implementation of the United Nations 'Protect, Respect and Remedy' Framework. The UN Global Compact's specific Ten Principles are:

1. Support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights.
2. Ensure the company is not complicit in human rights abuses.
3. Uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining.
4. Uphold the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labor.
5. Uphold the effective abolition of child labor.
6. Eliminate discrimination in employment and occupation.
7. Support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges.
8. Undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility.
9. Encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.
10. Work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

Our Commitment: We respect the environment, the communities in which we operate, and our employees' human rights, and we oppose corruption.

Our Expectations: We expect our employees and suppliers to act in a socially and environmentally responsible manner. We require them to comply with applicable laws and regulations. We encourage corruption-free decision-making and sound management based on appropriate environmental, occupational health and safety, and human rights and labor policies.

Human Rights & Sustainability Policy

Our employees are held accountable for complying with such policies. We expect our suppliers to operate in a similar manner, and we have incorporated such language in our supplier contracts.
