Slavery & Human Trafficking Statement

All suppliers are expected to comply with Johnson Controls' Human Rights and Sustainability Policy.

Our Slavery & Human Trafficking policy is available on our website under the Corporate Sustainability section, Reporting and Policies and under the Suppliers section.

Our Ethics Policy is communicated to our employees, suppliers and contract workers which encourages individuals to report any wrongdoing which extends to human rights violations like slavery and human trafficking. All reports are fully investigated and appropriate remedial actions taken when warranted. Our Integrity Helpline is available for individuals to raise concerns or report any alleged wrongdoing.

OUR SUPPLY CHAINS

We understand that our biggest exposure to slavery and human trafficking is in our supply chain. We have a Global Supplier Standards Manual which is applicable on a global basis to all suppliers and includes complying with labor and wage laws. Johnson Controls' global standard contract terms contain a clause by which suppliers commit to adhere to our Ethics Policy and Human Rights and Sustainability Policy.

Environmental Performance and Sustainability information is gathered through the Johnson Controls Supplier Sustainability Survey, the Supplier Assessment Survey, and other means. Any supplier supplying direct material to Johnson Controls is expected to complete these selfsurveys. These surveys are expected to insure major areas are in compliance with local, state, federal and country laws, including laws on forced labor.

TRAINING

As an enhancement to our annual ethics training, Johnson Controls is in the process of developing and implementing a training module which will enable employees to spot and respond to the signs of slavery and human trafficking.

We will continue to benchmark our standards and audit our approach against regulatory requirements and available guidance.
